

DR. ELMO EDDINGTON HOME

Built--1932 (brick)

Address--617 North First East

Present owners--Edward R. And Nann B. Frandsen

Dr. Elmo Eddington, born in Morgan, Utah, in 1895, came to Lehi to assume management of the Lehi Hospital during the Depression in 1931. The following year, he and his wife, Rhea, commissioned the building of this fine New England-style home. The Morgan Evans family restored the house to a superb condition in 1990. Current owners Edward and Nann Broadbent Frandsen continuing to restore both the home and grounds of this unique Lehi home.